LYNX will only transmit orders for execution to the external broker Interactive Brokers. LYNX has entered into this partnership with Interactive Brokers because it allows LYNX to meet the requirements of best execution in an appropriate manner.

Interactive Brokers adheres to its own Order Execution Policy and strives for the best order execution and thus acts in the best interest of the client. Interactive Brokers makes use of smart order routing. This means that Interactive Brokers determines the order routing and where the order is executed. The order can be executed within the Interactive Brokers group or sent to a party outside the group which is connected to a stock exchange. If you would like to see an overview of where Interactive Brokers executes orders for her clients, we refer you to their website.
